No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true;
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save.

FRIDAY MORNING, SEPT. 9, 1864.

NATIONAL UNION NOMINATIONS.

For President,
ABRAHAM LINCOLN, (Of Illinois.

For Vice-President,
ANDREW JOHNSON,
Of Tennessee.

For Presidential Electors,
GEORGE L. WOODS, of Wasco County.
H. N. GEORGE, of Linn County.
J. F. GAZLEY, of Douglas County.

WHO ARE THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.—Most of the arguments used by the copperheads on this coast are based on the supposition that a goodly number of citizens of Northern birth are engaged in the pseudo Democratic movement through the North Western States. This is a mistake. There has never been a time since the breaking out of the rebellion when Union sentiment was so prevalent among the [illegible] as to-day. After every defeat, it is the custom for hundreds of the rebels to avail themselves of the amnesty proclamation, take the oath of allegiance, repair to some Northern State, and there plot for the destruction of the Union they have so recently sworn to support. The armed organizations of which the traitors on this coast make such boast, are composed in the main of these pardoned rebels, who only changed their base to a point whence they can operate with less personal danger to their precious carcases. These are the men who were represented at Chicago, and they are very tender-mouthed as to their "sacred rights" at the ballot-box next November. They are apprehensive that alien-laws will be enforced against rebels of pretended and perjured repentance.

MR. MCBRIDE AND THE REPEAL OF THE FUGITIVE SLAVE LAW.—By a strategic movement which perhaps could not be well avoided by those who have "snuffed the battle from afar" in these martial times, Mr. McBride has been set all right in the Salem Statesman of yesterday by somebody asserting that Mr. McBride did vote for the repeal, by permission of the House, several days after its passage. Notwithstanding the tender of this assurance, his constituency are not apparently considered entitled to any explanation why Mr. McBride was absent from his place upon the passage of so important a measure. Whether he shirked the responsibility and then voted with the strong side—if it is true that he did vote as the Statesman says—or whether he was "otherwise engaged" at that particular juncture of affairs, we are not informed. By some singular fatality (?) the Statesman did not come to hand as usual last evening, and it was only on suspicion of some unfair advantage like this being taken that we made diligent search and found a copy at an hour too late to indorse or disprove the assertion of the Salem paper, by reference to the proceedings of June 18th as published in the Congressional Globe. We reiterate our assertion, of the first instance that "the voice of Oregon was not heard pro or con in the disposition of this important question." The truth of this statement is virtually acknowledged by the Statesman when it confesses that McBride had his vote recorded after the question had been finally disposed of. We are charged with wilfully misrepresenting Mr. McBride by quoting the vote had upon the passage of the bill. We deny the charge most emphatically. If by withholding copies of the Statesman from circulation in this city last night, it was thought to place the Oregonian in a false position and then make capital for McBride, or any other man, the wilful culpability belongs in Salem. We have no quarrel with McBride or the Statesman, nor do we mean to have, so long as a course of truth and justice is unmolested by unjustifiable attacks.

LECTURES ON THE WAR.—At the request of several of our prominent citizens, that sterling patriot who has faced his country's foes for nearly three years—Rev. W. F. Hopkins—has consented to deliver a series of lectures before the people of Portland, in which he will portray the scenes of war and conquest in which his participation has been personal, and of which he is thus admirably qualified to speak. From a private conversation we have been privileged to enjoy with the loyal "fighting chaplain," we bespeak for him a crowded audience at such time and place as shall be designated for his lectures, and will guarantee a evening well and profitably spent to all who attend. From his knowledge of "the situation," Mr. H. is confident that Grant will take Richmond and Petersburg before the close of the year.

GOOD CAUSE FOR COMPLAINT.—We have received a communication from Ames Chapel, in which complaint is made that it has long been a habit of some residents of Portland to ride out to that place on Sundays, interrupt the exercises of worship and Sabbath School, and desecrate the day by shooting and gambling matches, greatly to the annoyance of the people residing in that locality. The writer proposes, unless a stop is put to this pernicious habit, to give the names of those who make it a regular business to visit that place for such purposes. We hope the good people of Ames Chapel will not have occasion in the future to complain of such conduct. Every locality has its rights, and among them are those of undisturbed religious worship and protection to its youth from the allurements of vice.

A "HOUSE WARMING."—On the 1st inst., the Cosmopolitan Hotel, in San Francisco, was opened to the public, when about [illegible] persons went in. They were mostly roughs [illegible] the house and done great damage to carpets and furniture, and stealing all the movable articles they could get—silver plate, crockery, sheets, pillows, clothes, [illegible] clothing, [illegible] were [illegible]. A force of policemen were called in, who cleared the house at half-past nine. Lights [illegible] every part of the building.

COWLITZ COAL BANK.—We learn from the parties engaged in this enterprise that a drift is now being run on a vein of [illegible] in which with the expectation of soon reaching a merchantable article. We wish them [illegible]. The development of such a mine would add a [illegible] feature to our river commerce.

Letter from Rev. Dr. Patterson.

The subjoined [illegible] letter, received last week, has been unavoidably delayed by a pressure of [illegible] articles [illegible]. Its subject [illegible], however, is always fresh, and we commend it as interesting and profitable to all our readers.

ON [illegible] COLUMBIA RIVER, Aug. 26th, 1864.

[illegible]—Unavoidable engagements having prevented me from calling on you again before leaving Portland, I take this method of acknowledging my sense of your valuable aid to the cause of our common country, by your [illegible] of the U. S. Christian Commission's work for the succor of our wounded soldiers, and of requesting that you will continue to keep it before the public so long as they need our aid.

I leave Oregon with mingled feelings of pleasure and regret. Your magnificent rivers, flanked by such majestic mountains, adorned by incomparable forests; your fertile prairies, dotted with thriving farms and growing cities, whose churches, colleges and temples of justice attest the moral forces at work in laying the foundations of your young republic; and the wondrous enterprise which has impelled the railroad to climb the cataracts, and has planted another series of new cities in the wilderness, resounding with the music of the steam engine and the clink of the machine shop, and communicating by another link of finest built steamers with other cities still further inland, where the monthly millions of Idaho's silver and gold are exchanged for the richer harvest of Oregon's golden grain and fruits, impress on my mind the conviction that I have been permitted to stand for a moment at the portal of a continent, and take a glance at the cradle of a mighty nation. The necessities of our suffering soldiers call me away from the enjoyment of a longer survey of such interesting scenes.

It is not the least of the pleasures of my visit to these wonderful works of God, to find them possessed by men capable of comprehending his design in bestowing on our nation such advantages, and heartily sympathizing with the great struggle which we are now waging in behalf of the liberties of mankind. Personally unknown, the cordial and generous reception of the Delegate of the United States Christian Commission, by every community and indeed by every individual with whom I came in contact, will ever be cherished in my heart as a demonstration of the patriotic and pious attachment of the people of Oregon to the cause of God and Liberty, and of their earnest desire to honor and help all, in any way engaged in its defense. Those family hospitalities which may not be publicly acknowledged, have enlarged that treasure of Christian friendship which sweetens this life and glorifies the next. I hope to cultivate it in that land where war is unknown, and eternity gives time for its development. Your public companies and authorities have been equally ready to promote the interests of the Christian Commission. The commander of the forces in this District, Brig. Gen. Alvord, and his staff, promptly offered the same cordial co-operation which has been accorded by the military and naval authorities in California and Nevada, and in the Eastern States. To the California Stage Company, the California Steamship Company, the California, Oregon and Mexican Steamship Line, the Oregon Steam Navigation Company, the People's Transportation Company, and the owners of the steamer John H. Couch, I am indebted, not only for the facilities of free travel, but also for the kindest attention to my personal comfort.

In consequence of the facilities thus generously afforded, the whole cost to the Christian Commission of my voyage from San Francisco to Portland, Portland to Salem, Salem to Portland, Portland to Dalles, Dalles to Vancouver, Vancouver to Portland, Portland to Oregon City, Oregon City to Portland, Portland to Astoria, and Astoria to San Francisco, amounts only to two dollars!

I had supposed that it was impossible to excel the New England States in patriotic hospitality and generosity, but I visited Oregon, having traveled all around Portland, Maine, in the service of the Christian Commission last winter, a merely nominal outlay of a few dollars, but should I visit all the beautiful city again, I shall be glad to say that her daughter and namesake on the Pacific has not lost aught, but improved upon her lessons and example. The very finest development of the economy of the volunteer service principle adopted by the Christian Commission has been exhibited in Oregon and the Pacific coast.

To those citizens of the places named above, who, from the very hasty notice possible during my brief visit, or from other causes, were prevented from attending the meetings, I would say that Army Committees have been appointed, as below, the Treasurers of which will receive and transmit contributions to the Oregon Christian Commission, Portland, to which collections taken up in the other cities which I was unable to visit may also be forwarded. The Oregon Christian Commission consists of the following gentlemen and of the chairmen of the local Army Committees:

Rev. G. H. Atkinson, President; Rev. [illegible], Secretary; W. S. Ladd, Treasurer; J. [illegible], [illegible] Weeks, Rev. [illegible], Rev. [illegible], Rev. J. S. Cornelius, H. W. Corbett.

Salem Army Committee.—Rev. D. [illegible], President; Rev. O. Dickinson, Secretary; Mr. [illegible], Treasurer; Rev. A. F. Waller, Mr. Hatch, Hon. [illegible] Cooke, Mr. May.

Dalles Army Committee.—Dr. Steele, Dr. [illegible], Mr. Abrams, Rev. Thomas Condon, Secretary; Judge Wilson.

Vancouver Army Committee.—Brig. Gen. Alvord, Maj. Marston, Treasurer; Rev. Dr. McCarty, Secretary; Rev. Mr. Hines, Mr. Leander Holmes, Judge [illegible].

Oregon City Army Committee.—Rev. Mr. [illegible], Hon. W. W. Buck, Supt. [illegible].

Astoria Army Committee.—W. H. Gray, Secretary; A. Van Dusen, Treasurer; A. N. Gain, David Ingalls, [illegible] Bassey.

Permit me, in conclusion, to request every city and town in the State, and in the Territories of Washington and Idaho, which has not already done so, to organize an Army Committee, and afford the citizens an opportunity of contributing for the succor of wounded soldiers through the Christian Commission. They are now falling on the battle field. [illegible] delegates of the Christian Commission are among them, putting the cup of cordial to the lips of the fainting, bandaging his wounds, helping him into the ambulance, nursing him in field hospital, consoling, [illegible] and praying with the dying, writing his last message to his wife or mother, transmitting the lock of hair, the watch, sword, or other priceless relic to the mourners, and giving Christian burial to the dead, besides their labors in preaching, holding prayer meetings, and distributing the Holy Scriptures among the soldiers and sailors in camp and at sea. Four hundred and fifty such delegates gave their unpaid services in the Army of the Potomac [illegible], distributing over $6,000 worth per day of hospital stores from their own hands, directly to the soldier. [illegible] two steamers and [illegible] wagons with four-horse teams, a bakery, a diet kitchen, and a steam fire engine, pumping wholesome water for forty acres of hospital tents at City Point, a part of the machinery of their work. This force should be doubled to meet the necessity of the situation; and every man, with all that is done by other similar institutions, and by the most efficient medical department in the world, many of our brave soldiers will perish for lack of attention. Christian patriots of Oregon, what you do in this matter, do quickly. Men are dying. [illegible] Make one earnest, self-denying effort now to save them. This is the crisis of the war. [illegible] [illegible] that God has crowned our arms with victory, [illegible], and restored our glorious Union to a people purified in the furnace of affliction, having faith in God and love to each other. Meanwhile, let us labor and pray to this blessed result by helping the Christian Commission.

Respectfully yours, ROBERT PATTERSON.

The great 20-inch gun, recently finished at the Fort Pitt works, has been placed upon the trucks which were built expressly by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, at their shops in Altoona, to convey it to its destination. It is doubtful whether they are strong enough to bear up its immense weight—116,497 pounds, or over 50 tons. The 20-inch navy gun, recently cast at the Fort Pitt works is now in the turning lathe, and is slowly but surely becoming into shape.

A GLUT.—It is said that the amount of merchandise now in bond in this city is unusually large, says the San Francisco Scientific Press. Most of the warehouses along the bay front are gorged with goods. That on Lombard street alone contains between two and three thousand tons, near fifteen tons of which is Manilla sugar. Even iron is being bonded under the increased rates of tariff, a thing heretofore almost unknown.

GENERAL FITZHUGH LEE.—General Fitzhugh Lee was the chief cavalry officer of the rebel army, and his loss cannot be made good. He was a native Virginian, a nephew of Major General Lee and a graduate of West Point. Educated at the expense of the good Government he would overthrow and destroy, he has met his own just and righteous reward.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to September 6.

Salute to the Rebels in honor of Atlanta.

WHEELER KILLED AND HIS RAID A FAILURE.

Pirate Georgia Captured off Lisbon.

The Nation's Thanks tendered Sherman, Canby and Granger.

Thanksgiving in the Churches next Sunday recommended by the President.

New Troops being mustered in at the rate of 5000 a Day.

Rebel Proposition to relieve Prisoners in close confinement accepted.

The French in Mexico Defeated in Four Pitched Battles.

GRANT'S ARMY, [illegible], Sept. [illegible].—Last night our batteries along the entire line saluted the enemy for an hour and a half in honor of the taking of Atlanta.

HARPER'S FERRY, Sept. 5.—Our position at Berryville remains unchanged. The enemy remains in full force on our front. Our position has been well strengthened. All superfluous material trains, etc., have been sent to the rear. Any movement on the part of either will precipitate an engagement. Our front is now twenty miles from here.

NASHVILLE, Sept. —Gen. Rousseau reports that Wheeler's raid is a complete failure. Wheeler is killed and Haskell is reported dead. Damage to the railroad is being rapidly repaired.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—The United States frigate Niagara seized the rebel pirate steamer Georgia [illegible] miles off Lisbon, and put a crew aboard and sent her to New York. The captain and crew of the Georgia were landed at Dover. The Georgia, when seized, was under the British flag, and the captain entered a protest against her seizure. The event has excited much controversy. It is rumored that the capture was effected under the consent of the British Government. There is much difference of opinion in regard to the legality of the capture, but general satisfaction is expressed upon the subject.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 6.—The Democratic State Convention to-day nominated Jas. R. Robinson for Governor.

The resolutions reaffirm and endorse the Chicago platform.

WASHINGTON, Sept. [illegible].—The President has issued orders tendering National thanks to Gens. Sherman, Canby and Granger, and ordering National salutes to be fired at the Arsenals and Navy Yards in the United States, in honor of the recent victories. He recommends thanksgiving in all the churches next Sunday.

During the last 10 days the number mustered into service averaged 5,000 per day. Over six thousand were mustered in on the 5th.

Rebel Commissioner Ould had submitted a proposition agreeing to relieve our prisoners of war in their hands, in close confinement and put them on a footing with other prisoners of war provided our Government will do the same toward the rebel prisoners similarly held by the United States. This proposition was accepted.

NEW YORK, Sept. 5.—The Matamoras papers declare that the French have been defeated in four pitched battles in Mexico. The date is not given. They occurred at Beyer, in the State of Guerrero. The Mexicans were led by Alvarez. No quarter was given. The prisoners were put to death.

ENGLAND'S REBUKE.—The following is taken from the S. F. Flag:

Our English cousins take an immense interest in our rebellion. They think the attempt to suppress it cruel. They are horror-stricken at the bloodshed it involves, and they declare that we can't succeed, because we have been three years and more engaged in the job without having finished it yet. Now, John Bull really ought not to indulge in this kind of talk, unless he means to present himself before the civilized world in the guise of an impudent humbug and a disgusting old hypocrite. John Bull turned Quaker, indeed! He whining about bloodshed! Didn't he persist for seven years in the attempt to put down a certain rebellion of a very different stripe, indeed, from the present one? Didn't he hire Hessians at a shilling a day to shoot and bayonet his own kith and kin? Didn't he let loose the savages upon them with tomahawk and scalping-knife? Fie, John! fie! Do pray have a little decency—at any rate enough to keep up appearances! But the funniest part of the affair, after all, is that during the whole time that the mild and peaceful Mr. Bull has been lecturing us about our rebellion, he has had one of his own to attend to, which he don't seem to get along with any better than we do with ours. To be sure, it is in an out-of-the-way quarter of the world, and is not much talked about; but still the facts are curious. The last news from New Zealand informs us of a bloody defeat sustained by the English in the Maori war. Now, it may not be generally known that this little New Zealand affair has really lasted thousands and thousands of lives. Yet, such is the case. It has also lasted longer than our rebellion. England has not yet succeeded in her little job; why not then have patience with us, and allow us a reasonable time for our big job?

FROM THE SANDWICH ISLANDS.—By overland mail last evening, we received a letter from Capt. N. C. Brooks, of the bark Cambridge, hence, dated Honolulu, Aug. 13th, in which he says he arrived there after a passage of 17 days—the light breeze he took at Astoria continuing with him until he took a pilot at Honolulu, and he neither tacked nor made sail during the passage. The bark would be discharged on the 15th, reloaded and ready for sea on the 20th, for Portland direct, with a larger and better assorted cargo than before, consisting in part of sugar in mats and kegs, salt, coffee, syrup, pulu, sweet potatoes, fruit, cocoanuts, gold fish, [illegible] etc., and may be expected about the [illegible] or 20th inst. We are indebted to Capt. Brooks for a liberal file of Honolulu papers, from which we learn that King Kamehameha has abrogated the Constitution of 1852, and declared the constitutional convention dissolved. This, if submitted to, will render the Kingdom almost an absolute monarchy.

"A MORAL EFFECT."—The Paris correspondent of the San Francisco American Flag, writing under date of July 7th, says that the rams Cheops and Dancer, which were built by M. Arman, at Bordeaux, for the Confederates, were sold to the Russian Government three days after the Alabama was sunk by the Kearsarge. The policy previously pursued by the French Government with regard to these cruisers and pirates, was thus suddenly changed—which may be regarded as a "moral effect" of the Yankee whipping the English.

ERRATUM.—We made a slight error yesterday morning in stating the cost of freight and insurance on gold dust from Portland to San Francisco. It should have read ½ of one per cent. freight, or [illegible] per cent. insurance included. The mistake is slight, yet its correction makes the discrepancy in the statement in Congress greater, and the comparison between fact and fiction more odious.

CALIFORNIA UNION NOMINATIONS FOR CONGRESS.—The Union men of California have nominated for Congress as follows: First District—[illegible] McRuer; Second District—Wm. Higby; [illegible] Third District—General [illegible], and they will be elected.

SANITARY AID SOCIETY AT AMES CHAPEL.—We are requested to announce that Rev. [illegible] Kincaid will address the regular monthly meeting of the Sanitary Aid Society at Ames Chapel on Saturday, the 17th inst., at one o'clock, P. M.

Washington Wilks [illegible] while addressing [illegible] assembly in England. The last words which he uttered were the Great Western Railroad [illegible] death stopped his speech.

We learn from the Paris Opinion Nationale that the Mexican Government are seriously meditating a proposition for putting the Hawaiian Islands under the protectorate of the United States.

FURTHER AND CONCLUSIVE

TESTIMONY

CONCERNING THE

TILTON AND McFARLAND

SAFES!

A TRIAL TEST!

THIS IS TO CERTIFY THAT WE PURchased on the THIRD INSTANT, of Mr. Tillman, the Agent in this city of Tilton & McFarland, one of their BEST Safes, with [illegible] STEEL VAULT, and WARRANTED by said Agent to be Fire and BURGLAR PROOF, at sale. The outside door of said Safe is [illegible] their Six-tumbler Key-Lock. The door of the steel vault is fastened by their Six-tumbler Key-Lock and a Five-ring Combination Lock. Mr. W. Ensign opened the said Safe by picking the lock on the outside of the door in TEN MINUTES, and the door of the steel vault by making a key from measurements taken from the outside thereof, after said door was closed and locked, and by picking the combination lock (not using tools of any kind) in five hours and fifty-seven minutes, being ONE HOUR AND THREE MINUTES WITHIN THE TIME HE WAS LIMITED TO.

The trial was made WITH THE CONSENT OF MR. TILLMAN, who was APPRISED of all the conditions thereof beforehand, and who, upon the above result being made known to him, promptly offered to carry out his warrantee, by [illegible] said safe and taking it off our hands.

I CANNOT, and do not, after witnessing the above operations, CONSIDER SAID LOCKS BURGLAR PROOF.

CINCINNATI, [illegible] 8, 1861.

Scovill & Co.—Gents: I feel it a duty I owe to [illegible] to let them know the virtues of your Dr. William Hall's Balsam for curing of Croup. My little girl, seven years old, [illegible] an attack of Croup, and came very near dying. I gave her Dr. Wm. Hall's Balsam, as directed, which gave her relief in a very short time. We have used in cases of bad colds with the happiest effect. Benjamin Pilkin, [illegible] between Main and Sycamore streets. For sale by druggists everywhere. Beware of all other preparations of the same name. Each bottle of the genuine bears the signature of J. R. Baker & Co., Cincinnati. Take none other. Price One Dollar per bottle.

All humors and impurities, we assert [illegible]

BOILS.

WE READ THAT ONE OF the sorest afflictions that the patient Job was called upon to bear was that of Boils, and they have been found to be, from that time to the present, the most troublesome and painful of visitors. We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them once a month at least. They show an impure state of the blood, and that humor of some kind is lurking there, and the surplus of corruption is actually forced to the surface of the body, making its appearance in the form of Boils. Now, is it not best at once to purify the system? Do you ask what will do this? We answer, Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. It is curing humors in every form, and there is not a State in the Union where it has not accomplished the most astonishing cures.

REDINGTON & CO., Agents, 416 and 418 Front Street, San Francisco.

Just Before the Battle, Mother.

Just before the battle, Mother,
I am thinking most of you—
While upon the field we're watching
With the enemy in view.
Comrades brave are round me lying,
Filled with thoughts of home and God,
For well they know that on the morrow
Some will sleep beneath the sod.

Chorus—Farewell, Mother, you may never
Press me to your heart again;
But, O, you'll not forget me, Mother,
If I'm numbered with the slain.

Oh, I long to see you, Mother,
And the loving ones at home;
But I'll never leave our banner
Till in honor I can come.
Tell the traitors all around you
That their cruel words we know,
In every battle kill our soldiers
By the help they give the foe.

Hark! I hear the bugle sounding—
'Tis the signal for the fight,
Now may God protect us, Mother,
As he ever does the right.
Hear the "Battle-Cry of Freedom,"
How it swells upon the air,
Oh, yes, we'll rally round the Standard,
And, if need be, perish there.

A Wager at Whist.—I used to play a good deal with Rechberg, the Austrian Minister, and took pleasure in worrying him, for he was a great purist in his play, and was outraged with anything that could not be sustained by an authority. In fact, each game was followed by a discussion of full half an hour, to the intense mortification of the other players, though very amusing to me, and offering me large opportunities to irritate and plague the Austrian.

One evening, after a number of these discussions, in which Rechberg had displayed an even unusual warmth and irritability, I found myself opposed to him in a game, the interest of which had drawn around us a large assembly of spectators—what the French designate as la galerie. Towards the conclusion of the game it was my turn to lead, and I played a card which so astounded the Austrian Minister that he laid down his cards upon the table and stared fixedly at me.

"In all my experience of whist," said he, deliberately, "I never saw the equal of that."

"Of what?" asked I.

"Of the card you have just played," rejoined he. "It is not merely that such play violates every principle of the game, but it actually stultifies all your own combination."

"I think differently, Count," said I. "I maintain that it is a good play, and I abide by it."

"Let us decide it by a wager," said he.

"In what way?"

"Thus: We shall leave the question to the galerie. You shall allege what you deem to be the reasons for your play, and they shall decide if they accept them as valid."

"I agree. What will you bet?"

"Ten Napoleons—twenty, fifty, five hundred if you like!" cried he, warmly.

"I say ten. You don't like losing, and I don't want to punish you too heavily."

"There is the jury, sir," he said haughtily; "make your case."

"The wager is this," said I, "that, to win, I shall satisfy these gentlemen that for the card I played I had a sufficient and good reason."

"Yes."

"My reason was this, then—I looked into your hand!"

I pocketed his ten Napoleons; but they were the last I won of him. Indeed, it took a month before he got over the shock.

How an Indian finds his way through the Woods.—H. D. Thoreau, in the account of his excursion through the woods of Maine, tells the following of his Indian guide, Joe Polis:

"I asked him how he guided himself in the woods. 'O,' said he, 'I can tell good many ways.' When I pressed him further, he answered, 'Sometimes I lookum side-hill,' and he glanced toward a high hill or mountain on the eastern shore, 'great difference between the north and south, see where the sun has shone most. So trees,—the large limbs bend toward south. Sometimes I lookum locks' (rocks.) I asked what he saw on the rocks, but he did not describe anything in particular, answering vaguely, in a mysterious or drawling tone, 'Bare locks on lake shore,—great difference between N. E. S. W. side,—can tell what the sun has shone on.' 'Suppose,' said I, 'that I should take you in a dark night, right up here into the middle of the woods a hundred miles, set you down and turn you around quickly twenty times, could you steer straight to Oldtown?' 'O, yes,' said he, 'have done pretty much the same thing. I will tell you. Some years ago I met an ole white hunters at Millinocket; very good hunter. He said he go anywhere in the woods. He wanted to hunt with me that day, so we start. We chase a moose all the forenoon, round and round, till middle of afternoon, when we kill him. Then I said to him, now you go straight to camp. Don't go round and round where we've been, but go straight. He said, I can't do that, I don't know where I am. Where you think camp? I asked. He pointed so. Then I laugh at him. I take the lead and go right off the other way, cross our tracks many times, straight camp.' 'How do you do that?' I asked. 'O, I can't tell you,' he replied, 'Great difference between me and white man.'"

A Smuggler's Trick.—It was stark calm; and as the fog cleared up a little, I saw I was lost in the very jaws of a ship of war, and I almost gave up all for lost. However, as they were lowering their jolly boat to board me, I sculled off to them, all alone, in my little punt, and asked the people of the ship if they knowed what was good for the measles? I could hear them laugh from stem to stern. A big fat man they called the doctor, told me to keep my patients warm, and to give them hot drinks. It was enough; they took care not to come near the Peggy Ann that time.

Some people place their ideas of happiness upon one thing and some upon another. A lady made a call upon a friend, who had been lately married. When her husband came home to dinner she said: "I have been to see Mrs. ——"

"Well," replied her husband, "I suppose she is very happy."

"Happy! I should think she ought to be, she has a camel's hair shawl two-thirds border."

It is a sad thing that generally as a man's fears grow, and as his hopes grow, his oaths and curses also grow—those ejaculatory prayers to the Devil.

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

OR PROTECTED

Solution of Protoxide of Iron,

Has been used with Great Success in Curing

DYSPEPSIA,

Affections of the Liver, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Bronchitis and Consumptive Tendencies, Disordered State of the Blood, Female Complaints, Chronic Diarrhoea, Boils, Scurvy, the prostrating effects of Lead or Mercury,

GENERAL DEBILITY,

and all Diseases which require a

Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

The proofs of its efficacy are so numerous, so well authenticated, and of such peculiar character, that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid.

The class of diseases for which the Syrup provides a cure, is precisely that which has so often baffled the highest order of medical skill. The facts are tangible, the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible.

From Well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public.

It is well known that the medicinal effects of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by COMBINATION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN; and this Solution may replace all the proto-carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica. A. A. HAYES, M.D.,

IODINE WATER.

Iodine Water is the most important discovery of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is found to act upon the

LIVER, HEART, KIDNEYS, DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM, and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained a most perplexing until Dr. Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER,

without a solvent. This consideration by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analyses from Dr. J. R. Chilton of his city and Prof. Booth & [illegible] Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 1, 1856, page 76.)

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula, in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color, hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain tops, distant valleys and far off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office:

KEENESBURY, WIS., Sept. 15, 1863.

* * I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me. * *
C. A. FLAUTE.

SOUTH WARSAW, O., July 28, 1863.

* * One young man, who had been sick and not out of the house for two years with Scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $150 without benefit, has been cured by ten bottles of your Bitters.
EDWARD WOTNALL.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH STREET,
NEW YORK, August 2, 1863.

Dr. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness, and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. Respectfully, MRS. C. M. DEVOE."

* * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.
REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y."

* * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use.
Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa."

* * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.
REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

* * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house.
SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

* * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.
G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

* * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business. H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O."

* * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.
C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.
etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

Notice.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

The astonishing success which has attended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY,
LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER,

Whether broken down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step, his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS AND
CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURNING OR PAINFUL URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST, DEPOSIT AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic!
